Course highlights: Every year, the Palmilla receives worldwide accolades. In 2011, Golfweek ranked the course No. 39 in its Top 50 Courses of the Caribbean and Mexico. Divided into the Arroyo Nine, the Mountain Nine and the Ocean Nine, the par-72 course features 27 holes on stunning fairways of more than 7,000 yards. Whether beginner or professional, the five sets of staggered tee boxes ensure all golfers an exciting game.

Querencia Golf Club — Private

Km. 27.5 Carretera Transpeninsular
Local Phone: (624) 145-6600
U.S.: (888) 236-2229

Designer: Tom Fazio
7,070 yards
Par 72
18 holes
Rating: 74.5
Slope: 147
Private Course
$$$$

Course highlights: Just as vintage Cabo catered to connoisseurs of sporting pursuits, the Tom Fazio championship golf course at Querencia plays to connoisseurs of refined luxury. Its 18 holes span more than 300 acres — carving their way through deep arroyos and resting atop cool, arid plateaus — at the top-ranked golf club in the peninsula. Certainly not a place for everyone, Querencia is a place to live a life (and play a game) of one's own, encircled by stands of ancient cacti and palm trees, and pleasantly absent of the inconveniences of a crowded destination.

Club Campestre San José

Km. 119 Libramiento Aeropuerto SJC

Slope: N/A

Resort Course

$$

Course highlights: Featuring 32 bunkers, Punta Sur Golf Course was the first golf course on the southern Baja California Peninsula back in 1987. Its original purpose was to help increase tourism. This course was created for very soft play with a partially flat design. But be careful, the fairways are not very wide and the external urban environment can make your play more interesting, and require more precise strokes.

$$$$

Course highlights: Diamante Dunes Golf Club has been voted the Top New International Golf Course by Golf

Magazine, it's been featured on the front cover of LINKS, and has also been voted Best New Golf Course in Mexico by Golf Life: Travel and Best's Golf Guide magazines. Challenging and breathtaking, this course has it all and has been called by some as the best golf course in Mexico. A second course, the Oasis Course, will be designed by Phil Mickelson at a later date.

Note: With the exception of Diamante Dunes Golf Club, courses are listed in order of location driving north on the Carretera Transpeninsular Highway from Cabo San Lucas to San José del Cabo. Since greens fees fluctuate depending on the time of year and the time of day, the scale used is a general guide. $ = less than US$50; $$ = less than US$100; $$$ = more than US$100; and $$$$ = more than US$200.
